

been kidding the populace. Fred has been licked frequently, but now has a big battle in sight with Charlie White, and Fred's share of the coin partially depends on the size of the house. He wants a big gate. To attract the fans he put up a real fight against Benny Leonard in Brooklyn, outfooting, outguessing and out-punching the challenger. Welsh had trained faithfully and showed what he can do when he tries. Time after time he sent Leonard back with solid punches and varied this with jabs that completely bewildered the New Yorker. Leonard was frequently made to miss by a wide margin.

Good cards feature getaway day at Hawthorne, the feature being the Illinois Jockey Club gold handicap with a purse of $2,000 added. Dodge, Derby winner; Franklin, Faux Col. Leo Skolny, ad Olga Star are favored in a good field.

A big crowd watched some good running yesterday and the form players broke better than usual, four favorites going over. Sedan in the second race was heavily played and won easily.

After being allowed to lapse last year because of the Eastland disaster, the annual Chicago river swim will be revived today, starting at 2:30 o'clock at the old Columbia Yacht club.

The swim, under the direction of the Illinois A. C., will be from the foot of Randolph street, out through the harbor to the life-saving station and up the river to Fifth avenue. Perry McGillivray and Mike McDermott of the I. A. C.; Clement Browne and W. L. Wallen, Jr., of the Hamilton club; I. Wood, C. A. A., and Herman Laubis and Larry Sparks of the Missouri A. A. of St. Louis are favorites for the race.

The manager who makes a pennant drive must hold a tight rein over his players.

After 12 years on the job Bill Klem sagely remarks that umpiring is no sinecure. Most of it is just pure sin.
